

SOUTH
GEORGIAN
CORE
RESIDENTS ASSOCIATION

South Georgian Core Residents Association (SGCRA) in association with the United Arts Club invites you to a talk, titled Irish Art of the Past and Today by Kenneth Donfield at the United Arts Club, 3 Fitzwilliam Street Upper, D2

On

Wednesday 29th May at 7.30pm

Kenneth Donfield, a member of SGCRA, is a contemporary portrait artist. He has painted many official portraits of prominent figures over the years including Dr. Michael Smurfit.

He is a permanent lecturer in Drawing and Painting at the NCAD.

Kenneth won the RDS Taylor scholarship for painting aged 19 years.

This took him to Florence to study portrait painting under the world renowned master portrait painter Pietro Annigoni.

Kenneth has exhibited in many exhibitions at home and abroad over the years.

These exhibitions include the RHA annual, the RUA and several commercial galleries.

Kenneth also paints Plein Air in Ireland and all countries he visits.

Everyone Welcome

Cost €5